May 18th, 2022

Nestled in rolling forested hills amid abundant lakes, Delton Kellogg is a public school district with a small school feel and big school opportunities. We are seeking a flexible, attentive, and patient daily guest teacher who is ready to set high expectations and enhance the lives of students in the upcoming school year.

Collaborative and community-focused, Delton Kellogg is committed to enriching the experience of staff by encouraging the sharing of knowledge and skills through teamwork, mentorship, and professional development.

You will have the opportunity to:

- Teach in K-12 classrooms as assigned, and administering accommodations as needed
- Build rapport with students, staff, and families
- Collect and use data to assist with monitoring student growth
- Apply a variety of instructional techniques to meet the needs of diverse learners
- Guide the learning process to achieve learning goals set forth by teachers of all grade levels
- Maintain a classroom environment that is conducive to learning and appropriate to the ages and interests of students
- Redirect student behavior and reinforce appropriate behavior throughout the school day
- Interact with a variety of students while providing breakfast and lunch supervision
- Work from 7:40am-2:55pm weekdays, with summers off
- Contribute in other ways as directed by the Principal, the Superintendent, or their designees

A qualified candidate will possess:

- A valid Michigan Teaching Certificate

Your benefits will include:

- Competitive pay commensurate with experience and according to DKEA Master Contract
- Excellent health, dental, vision, and life insurance options
- Your choice between two retirement options

When you're ready to apply:

- Send a copy of your cover letter and resume to:
