June 9, 2022

Nestled in rolling forested hills amid abundant lakes, Delton Kellogg is a public school district with a small school feel and big school opportunities. We are seeking a supportive, caring, and driven teacher who is ready to set high expectations for students in the upcoming school year.

Collaborative and community-focused, Delton Kellogg is committed to enriching the experience of staff by encouraging the sharing of knowledge and skills through mentorship, conferences, publications, and professional development.

You will have the opportunity to:

- Build a routine within each of your regularly scheduled small group classes
- Create an engaging classroom environment that is conducive to learning, encourages student interest, and maintains standards of behavior
- Tailor a program of study to meet the individual needs, interests, and abilities of your students, using District-approved curriculum and special education teaching methods
- Integrate modern resources into lesson design through Google Classroom and a one-to-one student technology ratio, to create engaging learning experiences
- Determine goals, directions, and objectives, and prepare IEP goals and IEPC forms
- Conduct observations and assessments, and monitor student growth across all classes
- Guide learning by establishing objectives for lessons, units, and projects, and adjust instruction accordingly to maximize student learning
- Collaborate with colleagues in focused learning teams, and coordinate with fellow teachers to support student needs
- Maintain accurate and complete records of progress as required by law and district policy
- Communicate regularly with students and parents

A qualified candidate will possess:

- A Bachelor's degree
- Michigan teaching certification with endorsements in relevant subject areas:
 - Special Education

Your benefits will include:

- Competitive pay commensurate with experience, and according to DKEA contract
- Excellent health, dental, vision, and life insurance options
- Your choice between two retirement options

When you're ready to apply:

- Send a copy of your cover letter and resume to:
